AMENDED RULES AND REGULATIONS

ADOPTED UNDER ARTICLE VII OF THE TRUST AND BYLAWS

The Rules and Regulations (Rules) of the Northeast Terrace Condominium Trust Association (NTCTA) as set forth in Section 1.1 of the Northeast Terrace Condominium Trust are hereby enacted and enforced-by the Board of Trustees (Board) and may be amended from time to time.

The goal of the Board in determining the Rules is to provide a peaceful haven for all residents. The Board recognizes and encourages this diverse community and provides these Rules in an effort to preserve the peaceful habitation of all occupants.

1. Occupancy: Maximum occupancy shall not exceed (a) two adults in a one bedroom unit, (b) three adults in a two bedroom unit, or (c) four adults in a three bedroom unit. If the occupancy of a unit exceeds the number stipulated in a, b, or c, the unit owner must notify the Board within 14 days with the means to rectify the situation.

2. Pets: No dogs, whether owned by tenants or unit owners, are permitted at Northeast Terrace Condominiums. Visiting dogs must be on a leash and under constant control of the owner of the dog. Visitors are responsible for cleaning up after their dog. All other pets must be approved by the Board of Trustees and must remain indoors.

3. Common Areas: Common areas include but are not limited to driveways, sidewalks, entrances, lawn, and wash rooms. Patios are also common areas, but are the unit owner's "exclusive right to use areas". Common areas are for the use and enjoyment of all occupants. They shall not be used in any manner that obstructs the ingress to or egress from the dwelling units in the buildings. All personal property shall be contained within the individual units or the assigned storage area. No sign, notice, or advertisement shall be inscribed or exposed on or at any window, common area, or other part of the unit.

4. Exclusive Right to Use Areas: In order to maintain the aesthetic appeal of Northeast Terrace Condominiums, "exclusive right to use areas" should be kept neat and clean, and should not be used for storage. No object shall be fastened in any way to the exterior of the units without written permission from the Board.

5. Noise: No resident shall make or permit any loud noises or offensive activities in the units or common areas which would interfere with the rights, comfort, or convenience of other residents. All home improvements, vocal or instrumental music practice or other such activities should be performed between the hours of 9:00 AM and 6:00 PM.

6. Business Activity: Northeast Terrace Condominiums is a dwelling place, and as such no business activity that involves employee and/or client traffic is permitted.

7. Unit Rental: Prior to leasing or renting of any unit, an application to rent under the provisions of the Master Deed, Section 1, Paragraph 8, Section C. must be presented to the Board for approval. The Board will review and approve or reject the application within three working days of receipt. Applications will be provided by Management upon request, and proper submission is the responsibility of the unit owner.

8. Heating: In order to avoid frozen pipes, thermostats in each unit must be set no lower than 60' during the heating season. Unit Owners are responsible for damage to the unit, any common area, or any other unit resulting from failure to comply with this rule. Unit Owners must notify management if a unit will be vacant for more than two weeks.

9. Air Conditioners: Installation of air conditioner units must have prior written approval of the Board of Trustees. Unit owners are responsible for any damage to other units and common areas arising from air conditioner installation and use. The Board reserves the right to deny the use of an air conditioner if it is deemed to cause excessive noise or vibration or in any other way infringes upon the rights of other occupants or the architectural integrity of the building.

10. Refuse: The dumpster and recycling bins are for everyday household waste. Large items such as furniture, mattresses, discarded computers, etc. are not permitted in the dumpster and should be disposed of elsewhere at the Unit Owner's or tenant's expense. The Town of Amherst requires Unit owners /tenants to utilize the recycling process appropriately.

11. Parking: Each Unit is provided one marked parking space. All other vehicles shall park in designated visitor parking. Parking along the driveway shall only be permitted if visitor parking is full and then only for brief periods of time. All vehicles must have current license plates and registration stickers. During winter months vehicles must be moved to accommodate snow removal. Parking violations may result in towing at the vehicle owner's expense.

12. Parties: Written notice must be given to the Board and other residents of the building, of any party or gathering of over 15 people 3 days prior to the activity including the date, time, place and number of attendees.

13. Alcohol: Alcoholic beverages should be kept within individual Units and the accompanying "exclusive right to use" area.

14. Violations and fines: Any violation of the Rules by the Unit owner, guest, visitor or tenant may result in a fine of up to $100/day. Payment by the unit owner is due within ten (10) working days of said assessment notice. Failure to remit payment due will act as a lien on the unit and will be subject to legal fees and costs of collection.

15. The Rules and Regulations may be added to, amended or repealed at any time by a vote of the majority of the Trustees or by a written instrument signed by a majority thereof.
